Milo Miller

milomillercomics@gmail.com | comicsmilo.com

Milo Miller is a Chicago based punk comics artist and writer working in dark fantasy and contemporary mythmaking. He creates relevant fictions on contemporary political issues such as fascism and colonialism, while using the language of myth, folklore, and literature. Through strange and fantastic visual metaphors, his work speaks to dark and absurd realities.

Skills

- Comic Arts and Illustration
- Literary and Formal Writing
- Data Entry - Excel
- Library Circulation
- Adobe Suite, Incl. Photoshop, InDesign, Acrobat
- Microsoft Word, Excel, and Powerpoint
- Library of Congress Classification system
- Scripting
- Storytelling, Game Mastering
- Analog Photography/Darkroom
- Printmaking
- Alma Collections Management System
- Customer Service
- Organization

Publishing History

Fnews Magazine, Contributor - 2024-present

- Regular contributor to Fnews Magazine
- Published short 1 to 3 page comics in print and online
- Widely read by student body, staff, and broader SAIC community

---

Work Experience

Senior Library Assistant, SAIC Flaxman Library, 2024-present

- Familiarity with Alma Collections management system and Library of Congress Classification
- Responsible for managing library materials
- Keep data on library usage and log in excel
- Field Questions about the collection, campus and, reference materials
- Promoted to Sr. Assistant, now organize opening and closing tasks, and coordinating duties among workers

Education

School of the Art Institute of Chicago - 2026

- Full-time student pursuing a Bachelors of Fine Arts in Studio with a focus on Comics and Illustration, Minor focus in Photography.
- Completed studio courses in comics scripting, thumbnailing, illustration, and designing comic covers.
- Instructed on digital and darkroom printing, as well as various formats of film photography: 35mm, 120, 4x5, and 8x10

Awards

SAIC Merit Scholarship

- Awarded the merit Scholarship for an exceptional application and portfolio

---

Other Qualifications

NAMI Certified In Suicide Prevention

- Completed the Suicide Prevention course offered by the National Alliance on Mental Illness

Game Master

- Game Master of 8 Years
- Planned Sessions in a homebrew story and world for multiple long-running campaigns